

SEPNET SHARING GOOD PRACTICE IN EQUALITY & DIVERSITY

Embedding Diversity into the Curriculum

Wednesday 26 April, 13.00 - 17.30
Royal Holloway University of London

Programme

Insight into the Athena Swan and Juno renewal process

Dr Tracey Berry, Lecturer in Particle Physics EDI lead, Royal Holloway University of London

Encouraging diversity and facilitating inclusion in physics.

Professor Helen Gleeson OBE, Cavendish Professor of Physics University of Leeds, Institute of Physics Advisor to Council for Inclusion and Diversity.

Understanding the role of Advance HE Equality Charters.

Tina Verhaeghe, Senior Advisor on the Race Equality Advanced HE

Naming the solar system; implications for diversity and representation

Annie Lennox, PhD student with the Open University

15.00 Refreshments and discussions

Decolonising the Curriculum – a collaborative approach”

Pearl Johns - Public Engagement Leader in Physics and Astronomy at the University of Southampton and Olivia Keenan -Director of Outreach and Public Engagement at the South East Physics network.

Substantive and Representational Diversity in the Curriculum.

Professor Laura Sjoberg, Ph.D., J.D. Head of Department, Politics, International Relations and Philosophy, Royal Holloway University of London

17.30 Refreshments and networking opportunity.

This event is aimed at Heads of Physics and Maths departments, Directors of Teaching and Learning, staff with diversity roles, postgraduate researchers, and student representatives.

The workshop will be chaired by Dr Tracey Berry and followed by a closing talk by Professor Laura Sjoberg, who has recently launched the Gender Institute.

This workshop is FREE to attend. Please email claire.hepwood@sepnet.ac.uk to book a place on a first come, first served basis. Please circulate to your relevant colleagues.

For further information and to book a place email:

Claire.hepwood@sepnet.ac.uk

